"A TIME FOR US"

As Homecoming weekend approached, R.T.H.S. jumped with activity. The Pep Club spent many hours working on the float; the Student Council made arrangements for the dance; enthusiastic juniors broke the mum sales' record; and spirited Hub fans attended the first bonfire since 1956.

Many excited fans gathered on Friday night to see the Hublets tackle Princeton for their first win – 28-0. The Hubs fell back with a 20-0 loss.

Saturday evening's dance brought out many couples to enjoy the entertainment provided by the Nickel Bag. The crowning of the king, queen, and court was the main event of the evening and an exciting climax to Homecoming, 1969.

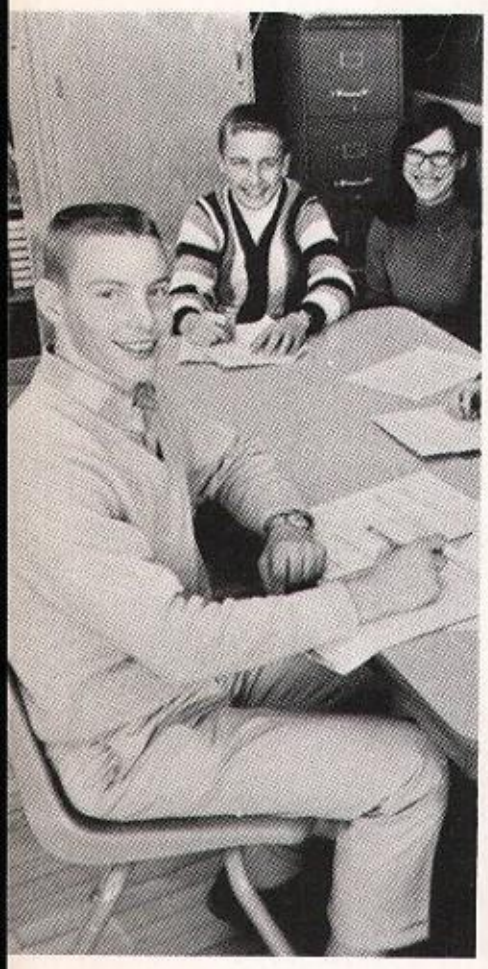
YEARBOOK IN THE MAKING



"I've got the proof I need!"

The 1970 Tatler editors were: Marvin Metzger (subscriptions), Linda Ruggerio (classes), Shirley Meador (activities), Susan Trout (organizations), Lisa Poliska (classes), Larry Hinze (sports), Kevin Kasmar (sports), and Terry Allen (photography).

Even the Tatler room drips with enthusiasm.

Striving to produce a quality yearbook, the 1970 Tatler staff displayed fine organization and individuality under their new advisor, Miss Mayes. This year's staff, headed by the editorial board, worked together cooperatively to produce the largest Tatler that R. T. H. S. has ever had. Each page represents a combination of long hours, hard work, planning, and a lot of fun. Sizing pictures, cropping, producing layouts, typing, and meeting deadlines were all part of the staff's effort to produce a successful Tatler.

The members of this year's editorial board were Kevin Kasmar and Larry Hinze (sports), Joanne Bailey (administration and faculty), shirley Meador (activities), Lisa Poliska and Linda Ruggerio (classes), Susan Trout (organizations), Terry Allen (photography), and Marvin Metzger (subscriptions).

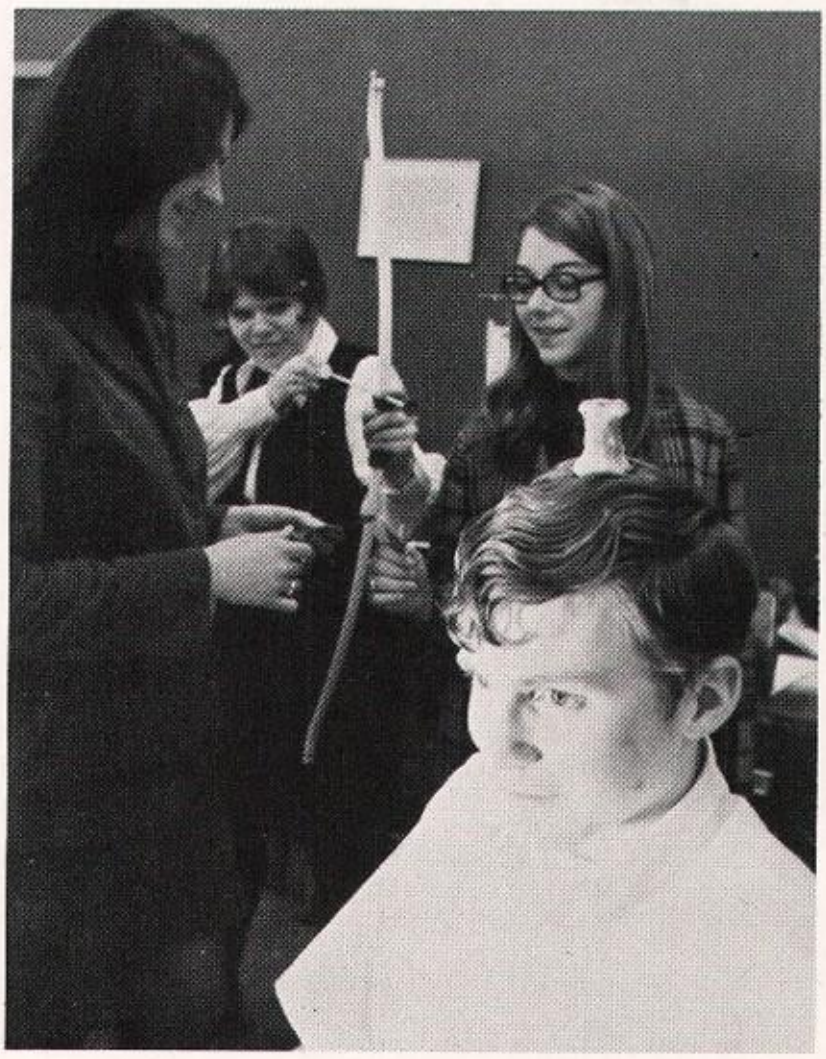
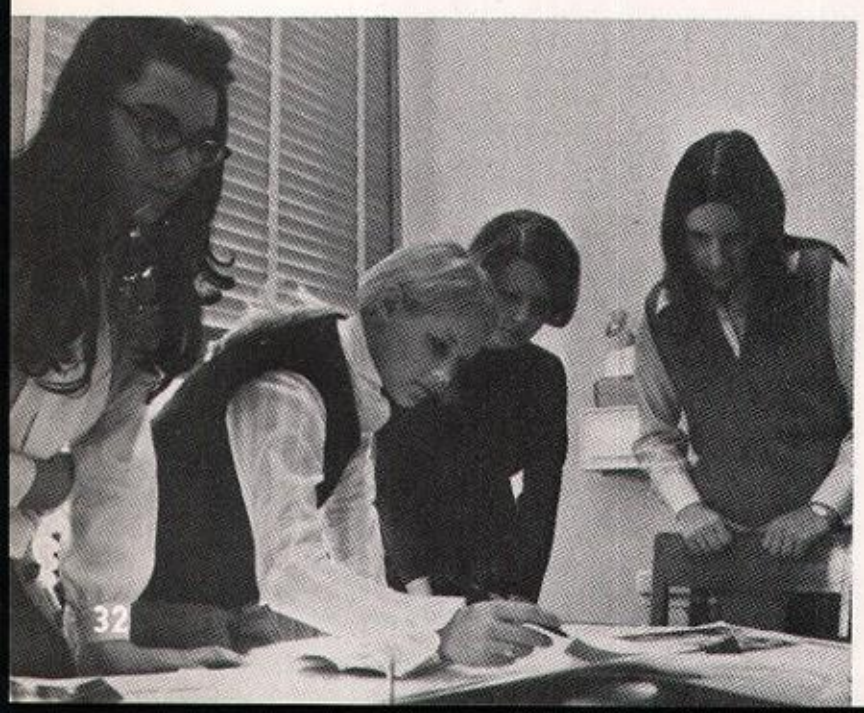
Concentration is the key.



Ro-To is serious Business!?!

"Oh, no! Not more about Key Club!"



RO-TO OBTAINS "NEW LOOK"

In September of 1960, Rochelle Township High School saw one of the most dramatic changes in the history of the student publication in nearly thirty-five years' the Ro-To-Hi-Life had a new look.

A large, five-column page, set with bigger, easier-to-read type and new headline sizes was made possible by going from letterpress printing to offset.

Editors who executed the change were Missy Marks, features and editorials; Sharon Polancic, news; and Kathy Lohrmann, copy. John Masters was later added as assistant editor for sports.

Part of the Ro-To's new look was a result of extensive picture coverage. Since Terry Allen was taking pictures for the News-Leader, the Ro-To-Hi-Life benefited by using his prints.

Headlines also constituted a major change in the Ro-To's appearance. Mr. George O'Brien, mechanical superintendent of the local paper, assisted by setting the headlines for the school paper, thus expanding the type possibilities.

How did the staff and advisor feel about these changes?

Mrs. Stotmeister, the Ro-To advisor, stated, "We think this is going to work out well for us. As soon as the novelty wears off, we should be able to settle down to getting effective coverage through pictures and copy."

"These paper dolls sure are fun!"

STUDENT COUNCIL LEADS STUDENT BODY

Each year Student Council is faced with the enormous task of trying to fulfill its goals: "to promote the general welfare of the school, to help solve school problems, and to provide the forum for student expression." And at the end of the year, every Council member has that feeling that the Council did not accomplish these goals.

This year's Council, trying to carefully reach these goals, began their activities with an all-school project – Organizations Day. Here students were given a chance to become involved in various clubs and organizations of the school and to become acquainted with the people with whom they were going to be "living" for the next nine months.

Homecoming brought great happiness to many students, for it was the first time in thirteen years that a bonfire was permitted. As the Homecoming festivities ended Saturday night after a three-day program, it was felt that Homecoming '69 was the best one held over the years.

Variety Revue, which helped to finance the A. F. S. exchange program, was another successful project, for it involved a great many students. These students benefited from their hard work, for they realized that in order to have communication among students, they had to become involved with other students.

Eight Council members, along with Mr. Vandenberg, made an extremely worthwhile trip to Sycamore to attend the annual Northwest District Convention. Through the Convention, Council learned why it is important to have goals and search for a way to attain these goals.

The most important project that Student Council promoted this year was the elimination of the grade requirement for all students wishing to become Council members. The Council realized that in order to have complete representation, students of varying qualities, academically as well as socially, should be a part of the group suggesting projects to benefit all students.

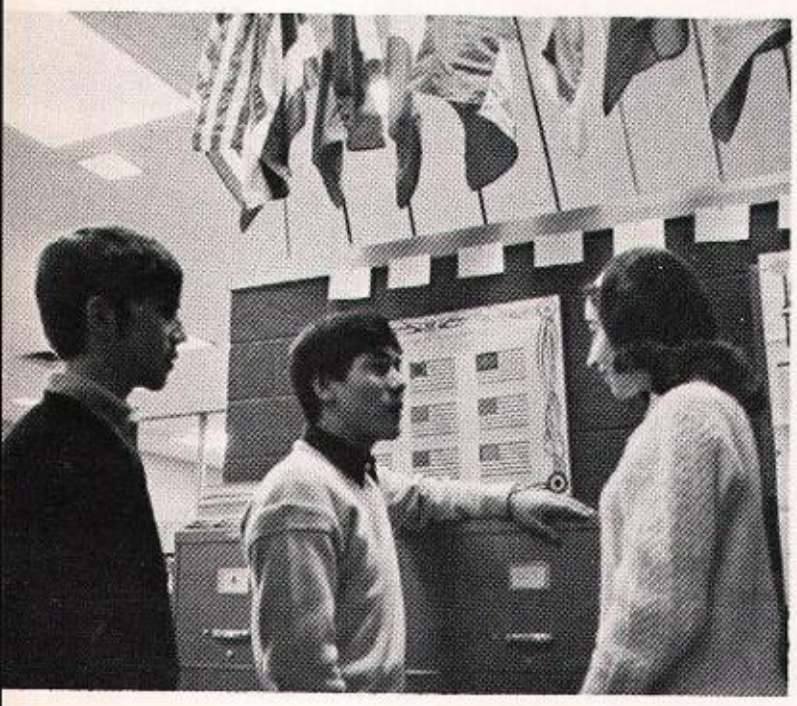
A GREAT YEAR FOR A. F. S.



Chaco's hosts, Bill and Priscilla Parsons, take a moment from their studies to check things with him.

A. F. S. had another great year with the arrival of Chaco, our Japanese exchange student. Hisakazu Nagatsu, as Chaco is formally named, is from Hokaido, Japan. During the year, he stayed with the William Parsons' family.

We were also glad to welcome Kris Handel home after her two and half months' stay in Darwin, Australia.

The year started off with a "bang" at the Organizations Night with our "International Dart Board." Chaco spread that good Japanese hospitality by greeting everyone in his kimono.

Other activities included an ice skating party, taking care of the coat check room at basketball games, the International Dinner, and a big annual picnic at the end of the school year.

The chairmen who organized all of our activities were: Kris Handel, general chairman and transportation chairman; Steve Neynaber, high school clubs' chairman; Sue Erwin, faculty chairman; Priscilla Parsons, bulletin board chairman; Norma Curl, scrapbook chairman; Gail Cooley, International Dinner chairman; and Cathy Stevens, Variety Review tickets' chairman.

LE CLUB DE FRANCAIS EST PLAISANTERIE

The French Club welcomed thirty-five members at its organizational meeting this fall. A new slate of officers was nominated, and elections were held the following week. Under the leadership of the new Madame la presidente, Debbie Brooks, and her first assistant, Susan Trout, members attended the A. F. S. Club dinner for which they provided dishes from French cuisine.

On Mardi Gras, which this year fell on February 10, the members feasted on the fabulous food of France, prepared by our own French Club chefs.

Spanish Club saw the advent of a new foreign student exchange program at R. T. H. S. The new advisor, Mrs. Wallis, area coordinator of "International Fellowship," aided in the placement of five South and Central American students in Rochelle. The students – Carlos Feliz of Santiago, Chile; Cecilia Moro of Lima, Peru; Alejandro Vialex of Rosario, Argentina; Sara Sgustume of the capital of Guatemala; and Jose Costa of Guayaquil, Ecuador – lived with host families and were enrolled in high school classes.

Most of the Spanish Club's activities were centered around the exchange students. A Snow Fiesta was held on January 16 and a reception on February 11. The Club had a Spanish dinner in Rockford, and held a bake sale in the spring to help finance a Spanish student to South America. They also helped participate in the International Dinner, November 11, by bringing Mexican and Spanish dishes.

S. teachers by grading papers, recording grades, or working on bulletin board displays in order to earn points toward the F. T. A. award and trophy. F. T. Future Farmers of America is a voluntary organization for students who have an eye for the future and an awareness of the great need of feeding, clothing, and housing the people of the world.

This year the F. F. A. held meetings each month in which they worked together and planned activities. Groups visited the Purina Research Farm at Quincy. They attended the Student Guest Day held at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the International Livestock Show in Chicago.

The F. F. A. also sponsored Kent Reed, Terry Schabacker, Terry VanHise, and Ralph Sweger, who attended the Conservation Workshop at the University of Illinois.

In addition, many of the members volunteered their services twice a month at the Dixon State School. ARTISTS IMPROVE TALENT

The Art Club, now in its eighteenth year, strives to offer to students the opportunity to develop an understanding and appreciation of aesthetic values in the various visual arts and to be of service to the community.

The Art Club purchased and framed a reproduction of a famous painting and presented it to the school. The picture is "The Song of the Lark" by the French artist, Jules Breton. Art Club members visited the Art Institute of Chicago, and they prepared exhibits of creative art work done by students in the high school art department.

Officers this year were: Rosanne Reidenbach, president; Mary Hovis, vice-president; Barbara Beck, secretary; and Jonne Fee, treasurer.

Displaying their artistic talent are Jonne Fee, Rosanne Reidenbach, and Mary Hovis.

Under the guidance of their new faculty advisor, Mr. Zawislak, and their Kiwanis advisor, Mr. Venator, the Key Clubbers continued to serve school, church, and community as they have for the past nine years. Twice a month a group of Key Clubbers donated a few hours to inmates of Dixon State School. The Club also held the annual soap drive for Dixon State School. Other service projects included conducting school elections and helping in the Kiwanis Kids' Day Parade.

Starting out the year with one of the largest club memberships at R. T. H. S., Jesters presented their first production, Hedda Gabler, as the Senior Class play. Also in the fall, the cast for the Contest One Act Play, Genesis, was chosen. Drawing talent from all classes, the One Act cast was one of the largest to travel for R. T. H. S.

A new activity was undertaken this year as four thespians directed members of Jesters in three one-act plays. This was established in order to give more experienced students the opportunity to direct those less experienced in play production. Producing plays was not the only activity Jesters was involved in. Twice this year they traveled to Chicago to see two stage plays in order to see sets, makeup, and acting from the professional standpoint.

Later in the year, Jesters presented the play, Barefoot in the Park, a comedy about the trials and tribulations of young married life.

To lead them in their many activities, Jesters chose Laurie Hanke, president; Beck McQuillin, Vice-president; Kris Handel, secretary; Becky Schabacker, treasurer; Alice McCaslin, points chairman; Kim Bostwick, historian; and Marilyn Upah, parliamentarian.

Working closely with Jesters, the International Thespian Society, whose purpose is to advance dramatic arts in secondary schools, started out the year with eight members. However, with two initiation ceremonies during the year, their members increased.

The Thespian officers this year were Becky McQuillin, president; Scott Koontz, vice-president; Laurie Hanke, secretary; and Marilyn Upah, treasurer.

Jester officers take a minute to relax from this year's busy schedule.

Thespian initiation is a little rough, and the initiates act accordingly.

And the race is on!?!

This year's cross country team, though lacking in size, fought their way to a three and four won-lost record. The Harriers were led by seniors Mike Hays, who won the High Point Trophy this year, and Tom Simpson. Following in their footsteps next year will be junior Jeff Truckenbrod and sophomores Marvin Metzger, Doug Hummel, and Terry Allen.

The Frosh-Soph squad, composed of Peter Springmire, Dick Upah, and Dave Friestad, frequently ran against teams with twice as many runners as they. Since all of these boys are freshmen, next year's Frosh-Soph team should be more experienced than this year's.

HUBS POST 1-8-1 SEASON

This year's football team played several terrific action-packed games. Rochelle's statistics in many of the games equaled or even surpassed those of its opponents.

Leading the defense was Jerry Lepperd, who received honorable mention for the all-state team. Jerry also received the Hackett Trophy award. Dick Loefgren, who received the Ellis Trophy award, should also be recognized for his outstanding sportsmanship.

Many of the other players received honorable mention for the all-conference team. Several of these players are juniors; thus, there is a ray of sunshine for the future.

With many of the players returning next year, we can be assured of a fine season. Next year's Hub "powerhouse" will again bring an exciting season, hopefully a winning one.

HUBS SHOW GOOD POTENTIAL

This year's varsity squad displayed much talent from its juniors. Most of the time the starting lineup consisted of three seniors and two juniors, giving the third year men the experience they will need next year. Coach Gentry also substituted in other juniors freely, increasing the chances for an excellent squad next year. But all the credit can't go to the juniors, as the seniors used the experience they had to carry the team through a good season. The co-captains for this year's squad were Barry Haigh and Scott Anderson, both regulars in the starting lineup.

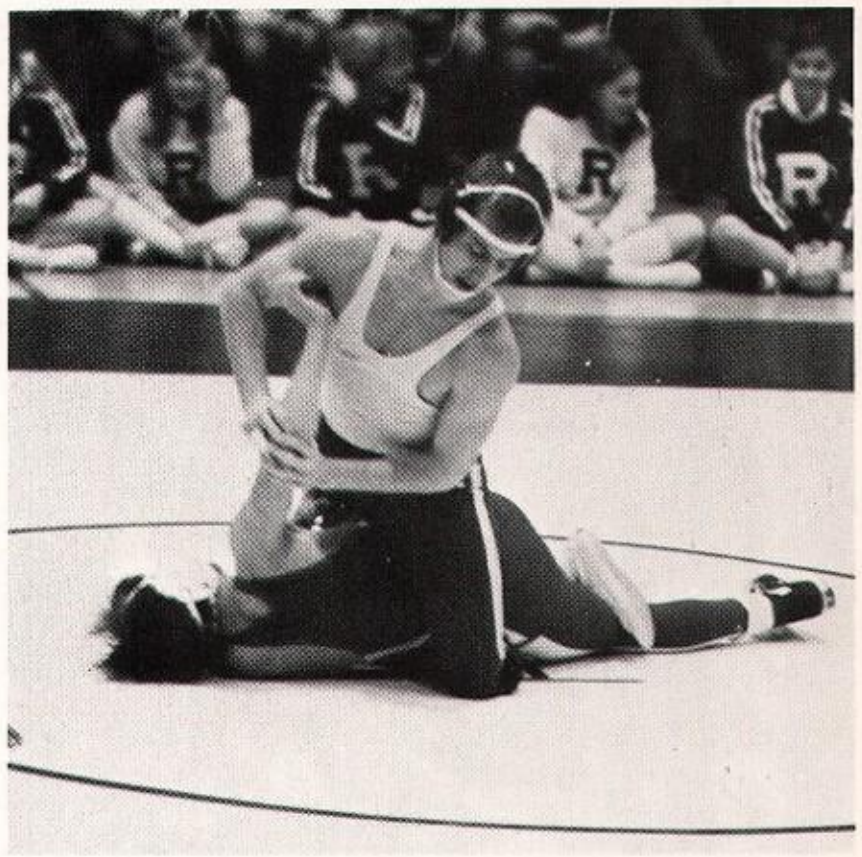
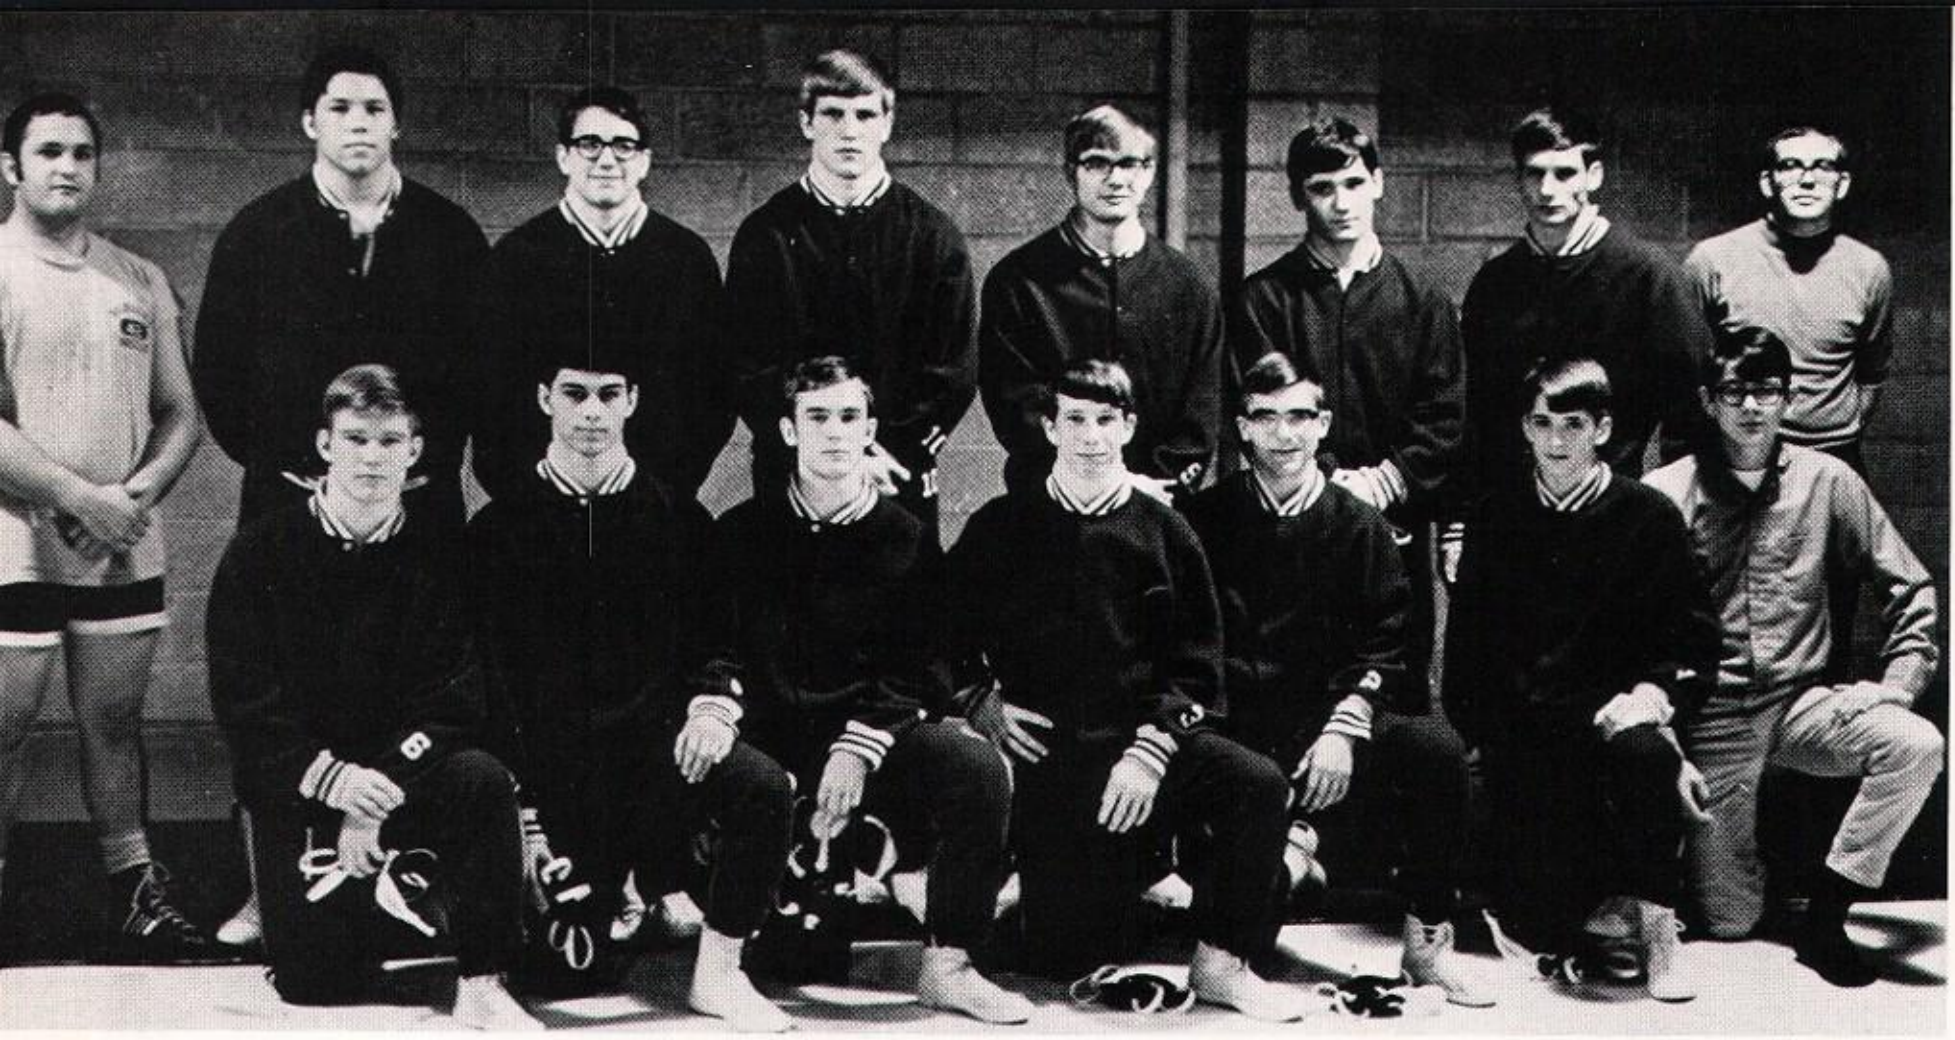
WRESTLING SQUAD FINISHES IMPRESSIVE YEAR



R. T. H. S. grapplers finished their season far ahead of squads of previous years in both duals and tournament play. Under the leadership and qualified eye of Coach George Dyche, the varsity squad managed to finish in the top three places of every tournament it participated in up to the district.

Outstanding wrestlers of the varsity squad were Jerome Getter, a senior, finishing with a 30-2 record; and Scott Brown, a junior, finishing with a 29-5 record. Jerome Getter, Scott Brown, and Mark Stechschulte were all co-captains for this year's squad. Mark was injured toward the end of the season and was therefore unable to add further to his long list of victories.

Junior varsity this year was coached by Joel Colbert. Many promising wrestlers from this squad will soon have the opportunity to fill the few vacancies left by seniors. We predict that next year's squad will prove to be a powerful competitive machine bringing the wrestling name to Rochelle as no other previous squad has done.



TOP ROW: Mr. Dyche (coach), S. Smith, D. Bryd, L. Metzger, B. Rinehart, L. West, D. Kapraun, and M. Davis. BOTTOM ROW: J. Kreiger, J. Getter, A. Pifer, S. Brown, J. Milligan, D. Peters, and J. Moore.

SENIORS CONTEMPLATE FINAL YEAR AT R. T. H. S.

Enter Juliet.

Juliet: Romeo, Romeo, where for art thou?
Romeo: Over here, Juliet, looking at the new play.
Juliet: New?
Romeo: Yes. 'tis entitled "At the Top You Will See Our Great Class of '70." Actually it's a record of the high school years of the Class of 1970. It's a long four act play with more scenes than any of the other years' plays. Here look.

ACT I

Rochelle Township High School
Enter Freshman Class. Small bewildered, confused.

Scenes: Football games, dances, Homecoming, plays, music contests, school clubs, Student Council, etc; all facets of active life at R. T. H. S.

ACT II

Enter Sophomore Class.

Scenes: Repeat Act I. Also, Frosh-Soph dance sponsorship meetings, bug hunting for biology class, driver's education classes and driving. High point of the act – selection of class rings.

ACT III

Enter Junior Class.

Scenes: Repeat Act I. Also, experimenting in chemistry, mum selling, refreshment peddling, prom preparation, prom parties, prom, and tests for college.

ACT IV

Enter Senior Class. Same actors as original but changed – older, hopefully wiser, hopefully prepared, adult.

Scenes: Same as Act I. Also, election campaigns, class pictures, announcement ordering, Twirp dance, Senior Class Banquet, Baccalaureate, and graduation.

Exit all actors.

Juliet: 'Tis a masterpiece! But hark, what light through yonder window breaks?
Romeo: It's the gym of R. T. H. S. being prepared for the grand finale, graduation.

Enter Hamlet and Macbeth.

Hamlet and Macbeth: Hail Romeo, Juliet.
Romeo: Hail to thee. Come watch the end with us.
Hamlet: Is Shakespeare the guest speaker? If so, I know a great ending line.
"To be, or not to be: that is the question: whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune, or to take arms against a sea of troubles, and opposing, with education and training, end them."
Juliet: That sounds familiar. Are you sure it fits the play?
Hamlet: By all means. Actually it is the whole theme of the play – to be a success, or not to be.
Macbeth: How about "Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player that struts and frets his hour upon the stage and then is heard no more?"
Romeo: True, but it is hoped that these seniors, although their hour of life at R. T. H. S. is over, will go on and be heard of again, in new fields of education and in new theaters of life.
Juliet: I fear we are the walking shadows and our hour is up. So adieu all.

Romeo, Juliet, Hamlet, Macbeth, and Seniors of 1970 – EXIT.

Junior Class advisor, Mr. Guio, and officers, Nancy Hardy, treasurer; Rhonda Hays, president; Darrell Quinn, vice-president; and Debra Jenkins, secretary; plan together for a busy year.

ENTHUSIASTIC JUNIORS TAKE THE LEAD AT R.T.H.S.

The great class of '71 started a profitable year by electing our officers to guide us. Rhonda Hays was chosen president; Darrell Quinn, vice-president; Debbie Jenkins, secretary; and Nancy Hardy, treasurer.

To lead us in our cheers at athletic events, we chose Emma Male, Lois Ranken, and Debbie Troha.

Peggy Bain, Rita Curl, Sheryl Esterday, Susan Gillis, Debbie Jenkins, and Wendy Johnson provided colorful half-time entertainment at the football and basketball games as members of the Pom-Pon Squad.

In the fall we all had fun working in the concession stand at football games. Soon after football season started, Mr. Guio, our class advisor, began helping us make arrangements for our mum sales. Our sales were so successful that we were able to break all previous mum sales' records. The money that we earned from the concession stand and the mum sales was used to finance the Junior-Senior Prom held in the spring.

Before Homecoming, the Junior Class boys selected three candidates for Junior Attendant to the Homecoming queen. These candidates were Ronda Hansen, Debbie Jenkins, and Debbie Osborne. Debbie Osborne was chosen as the attendant.

As a result of all our activities and responsibilities this year, we feel confident to assume the role of senior leaders in 1971.

"SOPH"ISTICATED SOPHOMORES BEGIN A GREAT YEAR

"Hmm."

"Hey, Sophomore, What are you doing?"

"Oh, I'm trying to decide what ring I should buy. Have any ideas?"

"Is that all you sophomores do? Buy rings?"

"No, we do all kinds of things."

"Like what?"

"Well, we elect class officers and also Student Council representatives. This year the officers were Steve Smith, president; Alice McCaslin, vice-president; Joanne Kingsbury, secretary; and Carlen Quinn, treasurer. The council members were Phil Alongi, Linda Cornwell, Joyce Fenwick, Alice McCaslin, Michelle Millotte, Jim Moore, Bill Parsons, Mary Jane Polancic, Ron Shields, Susan Tracy, Cindy Whitmore, and Marsha Ziliak."

"Do you do anything else?"

"Yes, we go to classes such as biology, geometry, typing, history, foreign languages, and of course, English."

"Boy, that's a lot of work!"

"Oh, we have fun, too. We go to football and basketball games and watch our sophomore cheerleaders Cindy Whitmore and Karole Jones lead the fresh-soph cheers. We also go to the Homecoming dance. Judy Finkboner, Janet Phillips, and Carmelitta Pyle were the candidates representing the Sophomore class. Janet was elected as the attendant. So you see, we do all kinds of things."

"Wow! Your class surely is an active one."

CLASS OF '73 A WORLD OF NEW EXPERIENCES

"Hi, there! My friend and I were just talking about all our memories of our freshman year at Rochelle Township High School.

"The first day was kind of scary, but it got to be fun when we learned our way around and got in the swing of things. Meeting all those new kids was fun, too.

"Not too long after school started, cheerleading tryouts were held, and three freshman girls were chosen for the fresh-soph cheerleading squad. They were Sherri Larsen, Debbie Wagner, and Diane Metzger.

"Then a couple of weeks later, the freshman boys selected three candidates and voted for one of them to serve as Freshman Attendant to the Homecoming queen. The three candidates were Jan Vance, Debbie Wagner, and Nancy Beck. Everyone had to wait until the Homecoming dance to find out that Jan was the lucky winner.

"When elections rolled around, four freshmen were elected officers, and twelve were elected for Student Council. In the class of '73, Bill Wilkinson was chosen as president; Missy Alongi, vice-president; Sharon Furman, secretary; and Norma Curl,treasurer. The twelve Student Council positions were filled by Missy Alongi, Susan Brucker, Norma Curl, Scott Erwin, Sharon Furman, Marla Kubale, Sherri Larson, Brian Richards, Mary Snyder, Dick Upah, Bill Wilkinson, and Nicki Wine.

"On Friday or Saturday nights, we joined the cheering section at the football and basketball games. Sometimes there was even a dance afterwards.

"Being a freshman sure was fun. I'm glad there are three more years ahead! Don't you agree?"

TENNIS PLAYERS HAVE TRYING SEASON

As Coach Romes said during the last assembly in which sports awards were presented, "When Mr. Pierson left last year after he had coached the best team ever at Rochelle, he took his top five players with him, so we expected to have a tough year." The Hubs did have a tough year, winning only five and losing eleven, but next year should be one to look forward to since the team will have experience.

Jeff Truckenbrod ended the season in fifth position on the squad and was high point man with a 9 wins and 7 losses record.

The J.V. squad, coached by Mr. Maaske had one senior on it, Al Erikson. Mr. Romes said, "If Al had been out his junior year in high school he would have made the varsity this year." The squad as a whole ended with a winning season of five and three.
